Item 8.01 Other Events.

On May 16, 2025, Tandem Diabetes Care, Inc. (the Company) received CE mark approval for the Tandem Mobi insulin delivery system with Control-IQ+ technology.

The Company intends to pursue additional regulatory and pre-commercial activities, such as securing in-country registrations and reimbursement for Tandem Mobi in EU markets, with plans to begin EU commercial launches by the end of 2025.

Forward-Looking Statements

This report contains “forward-looking statements” within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. These forward-looking statements relate to the Company’s plans to secure in-country registrations and reimbursement and begin EU commercial launches of Tandem Mobi by the end of 2025. These forward-looking statements are subject to numerous risks and uncertainties, including failure to obtain and maintain any required regulatory authorization, clearance or certification in foreign jurisdictions will prevent us from marketing our products in international markets; in EU countries, the pricing, reimbursement and rebates of health products is subject to governmental control, and in such countries, there can be considerable pressure by governments and other stakeholders on prices, as well as reimbursement and rebates; international trade policies, including tariffs, sanctions and trade barriers may adversely affect our business, financial condition, and operating results; risks related to the competitive landscape; other risks associated with commercializing our products outside of the United States; and other risks identified under the “Risk Factors” heading of our Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended March 31, 2025, as filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission. Readers are cautioned not to place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements, which speak only as of the date of this report. Actual results could differ materially from those anticipated or projected in the forward-looking statements. Tandem undertakes no obligation to update or review any forward-looking statement in this report because of new information, future events or other factors.
